

OUR IMPACT BY THE NUMBERS

N O R T H E R N C A L I F O R N I A
REGIONAL LAND TRUST

13,250 acres of oak savanna and mixed oak woodlands protected from the valley floor to the foothills

10,000 acres of carbon-absorbing grasslands and pasture saved for grazing livestock and wildlife

23 miles of streams conserved for wildlife, irrigated agriculture, and outdoor recreation

6,980 acres of forests sequestering carbon, providing livelihoods, and creating habitat

30 years of protecting working + wild lands

forever

More than 20 family
farms and ranches
sheltered from development

18 unique agricultural products produced on lands under conservation

Protected lands in 5
North State counties
stretching from the Sierras across the fertile Sacramento
River Valley

Over 35,000 acres of wetlands, riparian
corridors, woodlands,
forests, grasslands
and farms saved for future generations